

PROJECT TEEN CANADA
2008

SOME NOTES ABOUT PROJECT TEEN CANADA 2008

- ◆ This survey is the fourth in a unique series of national, bilingual research projects examining the values, attitudes, beliefs, behaviour, and expectations of Canadian teenagers, once again involving approximately 200 randomly selected classes and 4,000 15 to 19-year-olds across the country.
 - ◆ The first survey was carried out in 1984, and resulted in pioneering information on young people, published in the best-selling book, The Emerging Generation: An Inside Look At Canada's Teenagers (Toronto: Irwin, 1985). The book was also published in French as La Nouvelle Generation (Montreal: Fides, 1986).
 - ◆ The second and third surveys were completed in 1992 and 2000 and provided the country with unique trend information concerning changes and continuities characterizing Canada's youth through the 1980s and 90s. The findings were summarized in two books, Teen Trends: A Nation in Motion (Toronto: Stoddart, 1992) and Canada's Teens: Today, Yesterday, and Tomorrow (Toronto: Stoddart, 2001). In addition, summaries of the key research findings were produced in French. These three surveys have provided the most widely-read research on teenagers ever produced in Canada.
 - ◆ This fourth survey, being conducted in 2008, will make it possible to compare today's Canadian young people with those of the early 1980s, 1990s, and 2000.
 - ◆ A new book, *The Emerging Millennials, that presents and interprets the findings of the new survey, will be published in the fall of 2008. In addition, findings and topical releases will be available via the survey website – PTC08.COM.
- √ Copies of The Emerging Millennials will be given to the libraries of all participating schools.
 - √ Copies of Canada's Teens and The Boomer Factor will also be given to all participating schools.
 - √ Findings will once more be made available to television and radio outlets, leading newspapers and magazines, web services, and a wide range of government departments, groups, and individuals.
 - √ Project Teen Canada personnel will continue to present the project's findings and implications to educators, youth workers, organizations, parents, and teenagers across the country.

Total confidentiality is again guaranteed.
The names of teenage participants are unknown.
Further, the names of participating schools will not be disclosed.

Canada's youth will be heard as we reflect together on the kind of society we want in this new century.
